CONGREGATIONAL MEETING UPDATE

We will not have our annual congregational meeting this year due to the virus but we still have business to take care of. You will receive an email next week with the slate of officers to be voted on and the budget that needs to be approved. We ask that everyone please follow the instructions on how to handle your vote and participate. Should you have any questions please send them to Angela who will make sure the right person can assist you with your question.

TIME TO UPDATE THE DIRECTORY

Yes, it's that time of year again! Please go to the website directory and let Angela know if there are any changes that need to be made to your contact information. Email Angela at templemanuel.tuscaloosa@gmail.com

ENJOY!

Stacey, Lena and Kevin Bullock have made it safely to their new home in Webster, New York. They will be dearly missed by our temple family and community. Wishing you good health and a wonderful life in your new home!

MICHAEL SHULMAN

Sunday, August 9th many participated in the Zoom celebration of Michael Shulman's life. It was lovely to hear several of his friends and family share stories about this fun loving man. Michael lived life to the fullest and taught us all how to enjoy each day. The Rabbi did a great job leading us through the service and Chet Goldstein did a most memorable tribute. We send our thoughts and prayers to the family.

This week's Torah Portion: R'eih

See [This Day I Set Before You Blessing & Curse]

SUMMARY

- God places both blessing and curse before the Israelites. They are taught that blessing will come through the observance of God's laws. (11:26–32)
- Moses' third discourse includes laws about worship in a central place (12:1–28); injunctions against idolatry (12:29–13:19) and self-mutilation (14:1–2); dietary rules (14:3–21); and laws about tithes (14:22–25), debt remission (15:1–11), the release and treatment of Hebrew slaves (15:12–18), and firstlings (15:19–23).
- Moses reviews the correct sacrifices to be offered during the Pilgrim Festivals—Pesach, Sukkot, and Shavuot. (16:1–17)
