TEMPLE EMANU-EL BULLETIN

Temple Emanu-El 809 4th Ave Tuscaloosa, AL 35401 (205) 759-3230
Steven L. Jacobs, Rabbi Joel Whitman, President

April 2011 Adar II – Nisan 5771

From Rabbi Jacobs "Of Nouns and Verbs, Adjectives and Adverbs, and the Scholarly Re- sponsibility for Carefully-Nuanced Language"

Professor Juan Cole, the Richard P. Mitchell Collegiate Professor of History at the University of Michigan, recently visited our campus to participate in a History Department Roundtable entitled "Understanding the Revolutions of 2011: Why the History of the Middle East Matters." His fellow participants were Dr. Richard L. Chambers, former director and Professor Emeritus of the Center for Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Chicago, and Dr. Will Hanley, Assistant Professor of History at Florida State University. The evening before, Dr. Cole delivered a lecture "Liberty, Power, and Dictatorships: U.S. Foreign Policy in the Middle East," which I was unable to attend.

In preparation for this visit, as is my wont, I did a bit of background reading about the participants and some of their writings. (The Middle East is not my primary field, although I am teaching an advanced seminar this semester entitled "Religions, Politics, and Cultures of the Middle East.")

What struck me most about Cole's writings was his repetitive use of certain capitalized nouns. The two most prominent examples were (1) "Zionists" versus a more carefully-nuanced phrase such as "those who (continue to) advocate the Zionist perspective or orientation," and without referring to either Israelis or other Jews and certainly not Christians or secularists who share this same world-view, and (2) "Israel Lobby" or "Lobby" versus a more carefully-nuanced phrase such as "those who lobby on behalf of Israel."

The problem, for the less sophisticated in the audience, not only students but colleagues and "townies" and others far less familiar with the complexities of the Middle East and its ever-changing dynamics (including the Arab/Palestinian-Israeli situation) is that such a rhetorical device—perhaps initially a form of verbal shorthand but also possibly a calculated intellectual decision by one who presents himself as an expert—implies an organizational structure and a decided, in this case political, agenda, and one somehow contrary to a democratic political process, both that of our citizenry and that of the State of Israel. Such consistently negative imaging does little to advance conversation and discussion on the part of those who should know better, and represents, to a greater or lesser degree, a betrayal of the scholarly enterprise.

The Academy must continue to be the place which rejects the notion of black versus white, either versus or. Though the late Primo Levi (1919-1987) used the term "the gray zone" to reference that place of moral ambiguity wherein decisions were made in the context of the Holocaust/Shoah which, in other contexts, would be rejected, the term may have relevance here. The ongoing quandaries of the Middle East require of all scholars in their written and oral presentations, Cole being no exception, proper contexts and a thorough review of both our written and spoken words before delivery. Such work also requires of us an in-depth examination of the very words we use and the language we construct as well as the implications of how our words are perceived and understood by our audiences. Sloppy use of words, explosive and exploitative use of language not only does a disservice to the Academy, but advances only partisan argument and undermines the very foundation on which reasonable objectivity in the discourse is to be maintained. At best, then, Professor Juan Cole deserves a "C-" at The University of Alabama.

From the President

Happy Passover! Please come and enjoy our community Seder. See the Temple Emanu-El Bulletin for details. We look forward to sharing your company in the new Hillel building, and enjoying the Seder brought to us by our Sisterhood. Our first Seder since we moved into our new home!.

April 2nd, 2011 at 2:00 PM is the dedication of the new Bama Hillel home just across the walkway from the Temple. Please join Hillel in their important milestone. Once again we will be participating in an extension of the Jewish presence in Tuscaloosa and The University of Alabama.

The Rabbi talks about our need for a Jewish Community. A building like our Temple is made of sticks, stones, and is a house. No matter how beautiful a building is it only becomes a home when people are present and involved with each other and their G-d. We accomplish this by participation in many activities. Temple Emanu-El offers many different opportunities for us to find our way into and through Judaism. What opportunities are regularly available?

Our Shabbat Service always includes the Torah Portion for each week. The Torah is owned by all Jews and is so celebrated at every service. Anyone can share the experience by being up close and sharing the feeling of what being Jewish can be. We have Torah Study at least once a month where learning about Torah and the meanings of what is written is shared by our Rabbi. Adult Education proves a program that allows you to learn spoken Hebrew. Another aspect of Adult Education is having guest speakers after Shabbat Services. Our children's Sunday school growth has become a shining example of what can be accomplished due to the leadership efforts of past and present principals. The children's excitement and fervor can be seen in their participation in special events.

The commitment and activities of our Sisterhood can be seen in our successful Oneg events, Passover Seder, High Holiday break-the-fast meals, the Jewish Film Festival, High Holiday Flower Fund, and other fund raising activities. The Men's club is another Temple resource that has provided assistance in the maintaining the physical facilities and mentoring young men.

We look forward to seeing you at the Passover Seder and we invite you to participate in the many opportunities to create a Jewish Community.

Your New Synagogue

from Baila Block and Anna Singer Mar 31, 2011

- The front door locks and handles have been replaced, and we look forward to better entering. But please make sure you fully close all doors when exiting—or the alarm will go off.
- Anna Singer is working on completing exterior and interior signage. Exterior signage will conform to basic UA requirements. We would like to have directional signs at the corners of University and 4th, but we may not install those on public property. We're working on a solution for that problem.
- Kitchen has mostly been organized. Doris Cohen is in charge—check with her about kitchen use!
- All Programming (Temple Use) must be cleared through Betty Jo Goldstein (339-9454) and Joel Whitman

Here are some things still pending:

Playground: Parents and staff will need to make choices about what equipment to put in. Note: UA has approved our making a special pathway to the playground, using 12x12 custom blocks that children (and adults) can decorate. We'll charge for these to help purchase the playground equipment.

Furnishings, etc aren't quite complete (see wish list below)

Artwork: There is no further wall space to be filled. Please see the Board's policy concerning donations of art and other tangible items, published in several previous bulletins.

Wish List

- A large, good-quality carpet (9x12 or near, with pad) for the lobby.
- A nice round table, about 24", for the center of the lobby—with glass top to allow for flower arrangements.
- Used PC or laptop for the library, running XP
- Another rolling tea cart—maybe a nice wooden one—for siddurs (the one intended for books has instead become a kitchen cart)
- 2 bins with secure tops for recycling cans and paper products (preferably "real" recycling bins available through Sam's or Costco)

EDUCATION

Religious School

On the left, a Hebrew class in February.—Rebecca Rothman

"Stepping Stones" is a Jewish family education program sponsored by Religious School; Marianne Rosenzweig is the facilitator, and seven families are participating in the program this year. They have met for 3 Sundays in the Fall and will have 3 more meetings in the Spring.—Rebecca Rothman

Adult Education

Mark your calendars! Torah Study meets in the library at 11 am on the following Sundays: Mar 6 & 20, April 17, May 8 & 22. Please bring your own coffee and snack. For more information, contact Diana Schwab at dschwab345@comcast.net

ADULT EDUCATION ONEG & SPEAKER PROGRAM FOLLOWING SERVICES

April 1, 7 pm, following services: Shabbat Oneg followed by a talk by Dr. Paul Aharon, Ray E. Loper Chair Professor of Geology, entitled "Travels in the Land of Milk and Honey." Dr. Aharon will address points of interest regarding geology, geography, and archaeology in Israel. Bring a brown bag supper if you wish.

To be announced: A post-service talk by Jessica Lacher-Feldman, Director of UA's Archives.

For more information, please contact Diana Schwab: dschwab345@comcast.net or 310-8608
