From Rabbi Jacobs

I have asked the bulletin to reprint the following important press release from ARZA, www.arza.org:

WASHINGTON DC, October 17, 2012– Last night, police intervened as women, including Anat Hoffman, Executive Director of the Israel Religious Action Center and chairwoman of Women of the Wall, prayed at the Western Wall in celebration of the beginning of the Jewish month of Cheshvan and the 100th anniversary of Hadassah. Hoffman was arrested and charged with the "offense" of wearing a prayer shawl and disturbing public order. She vividly described excessive use of force and mistreatment by the police. Two other women were detained this morning. Leaders of the Reform Jewish Movement have spoken to Israeli Ambassador Michael Oren to express great concern, and released the following statement:

"Last night's police intervention as women prayed at the Kotel as well as the arrest of Anat Hoffman are appalling. Anat Hoffman is not only a courageous champion of social justice, but a close friend and colleague. The treatment she has described while being held in jail is deplorable and degrading and must be investigated immediately by the Minister of Police. These events are unacceptable and an affront to Jews worldwide who treasure Israel as a vibrant democracy committed to the right of gender equality and religious freedom." Said Rabbi Rick Jacobs, President of the Union for Reform Judaism. "Israeli governmental leaders and law enforcement must ensure that the right of women to pray at the Wall is protected and arrests such as those that occurred last night are prevented from ever happening again."

Co-President's Message

We've had such a busy fall already.

Our Religious School is amazing. Come by on a Sunday morning and see the activities. It makes us older congregants tired just to watch all of the energy of the kids, teachers, and parents.

The Sisterhood's energy under Pam DeWitt and Amy Ahmed is equally great. The spaghetti supper was a delicious success, thanks to the culinary skills of Brian Ahmed (of Full Moon Barbeque). It was another great chance just to get congregants together for a fun evening.

Your board has been working on long-term investment policies. Many thanks again to Ken DeWitt and his committee for putting us on a good footing.

Speaking of money, your meticulous treasurer, Marcy Weinberger, is doing a great job not only keeping up with the bills, but also reorganizing the way we understand accounts. Thanks to her for all the hard work.

November means Election Day (be sure to vote) and Thanksgiving. Please note that Religious School and other activities will be suspended on the weekends before and after Thanksgiving. We wish all of you a happy gathering with family and friends.

The Temple

Your Board

The board met on October 28. We discussed membership categories and the investment policy. We heard numerous other committee reports, and were gratified that they reflected good work in all areas. The board has accepted the resignation (as of April 2012) of Rebecca Rothman as Religious School curriculum director. Kevin Besnoy has agreed to succeed her.

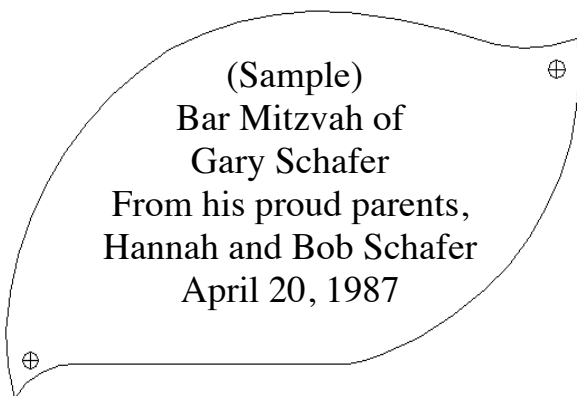

If you have items you would like to see discussed by the board, please get in touch with Hattie Kaufman, hek14874@gmail.com and Anna Singer, annajsinger@hotmail.com (please copy us both).

Leaves of Life

Starting next month, we will be adding engraved leaves to the Dinoff Tree of Life in our lobby. A sample is shown below at full size.

These may be purchased for simchas—for instance, anniversaries, landmark birthdays, graduations, births, b'nai mitzvot, or other occasions. This is also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community.

An order form is on page 8.

About the Membership Form

All households that have not submitted a membership form are asked to do so now.

A membership form will be asked from everyone, regardless of how long they have been members. Our records have become out of date, and the board agreed that we needed to have good information on file.

Please pick up the form at the Temple, or e-mail Pam DeWitt or Anna Singer for a pdf copy.

Music

The Ritual Committee, has been divided in two with Becky Caudill heading ritual and cemetery and Gale Zumpano handling music. Gale will be teaching new tunes for prayers at 5:30 on Fridays, before services.

Treasury Notes

Thanks for calling and sending me notes about your dues and donations. Please check to see whether you've fulfilled your yitzkor pledges—thanks to those who have.

Please send your checks to Treasurer, Temple Emanu-El, 809 4th Ave, Tusc. 35401. Indicate "dues" or other item, such as "donation" or "yitzkor pledge" on the memo line. Thanks

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone! It's Amy and Pam

There are so many people to thank for helping us prepare such a lovely array of holiday food to make the season special.

Thanks to Barbara Hood for attending the Southeast WRJ convention in Atlanta to receive an award for the Sisterhood.

Spaghetti Dinner & Bingo, Oct. 18

48 people attended the first Spaghetti/Bingo dinner and it turned out to be lots of fun. The food from Full Moon was delicious and there were many bingo winners that evening. Please try to attend the next dinner in the spring. The more, the merrier.

T-Shirts

are still for sale and we want to thank Chet Goldstein for surprising us by donating them. Sales have been great but we would love to sell all of them. Contact Pam or Amy if you are interested in one.

Coupon Books!

Marianne Rosenzweig has chaired our coupon book fundraiser and she has done an outstanding job. It was not in our original plans but has turned out to be a very successful money maker. Contact Marianne if you would like to purchase a coupon book. They are filled with great discounts.

"Sisters" Luncheon

Sisterhood will have its first "Sister's" luncheon on November 8 at IHCC at noon. We will all share a Temple story that might have happened last year or 40 years ago. We will record it because I'm sure we will learn some wonderful history about the Temple.

form Judaism, added, "There is no denominational monopoly on the spirituality of the Kotel, and it is intolerable that any woman should be arrested for praying at one of Judaism's most cherished sites. The role of Israeli police should rather be to protect those who pray."

Rabbi Bennett Miller, Chairman of ARZA, reflected on the situation saying, "It is impossible for any 21st century Jew to comprehend the notion that in the Jewish State any Jew would be prevented from reciting the Sh'ma at any time and in any place. That this occurred at the Kotel, that Anat Hoffman was arrested for declaring the "watchword of Jewish faith" should be abhorrent to any and every Jew. We are grateful that Anat has now returned to her home and we are committed to increasing our efforts on behalf of all those in Israel who work tirelessly to end the Israeli government's endorsement of religious zealots who want to reign tyranny over Jewish religious freedom."

Barbara Kavadias, Acting Executive Director of ARZA noted, "Anat Hoffman has been arrested for doing what Jewish women all over the world do on a regular basis: pray as Jews. Israel's Declaration of Independence guarantees freedom of religion, conscience, language, education and culture and commits to safeguarding the holy places of all religions. It is unconscionable that the State of Israel is now denying us the religious freedom to pray."

"The Reform Movement calls on the government of Israel to remove the ultra-Orthodox authority that oversees the Kotel and ensure the rights of all Jewish people to pray at this holy site, men and women alike," Kavadias continued. "The words of Hatikvah, Israel's national anthem, express the will 'To be a free people in our land.' That freedom will only be a reality when all Jews, women and men, are able to pray openly without being harassed or physically attacked."

ARZA, The Reform Israel Fund, is the Israel voice of the Reform Movement in the United States, and seeks to make Israel fundamental to the sacred lives and Jewish identities of Reform Jews. ARZA champions and supports activities that help build an inclusive and democratic Israeli society. Find out more at www.arza.org.

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News:

A Day at the Tuscaloosa Community Soup Bowl

If you thought all Gale Zumpano did in her leisure time was sing, think again. She's also a virtuoso at washing pans!! Diane Brown (our flower lady) took a break from the joys of ultra sound to scoop up 250 plates as did Paul and Roberta Weisberg, finally home from Chicago. Then there was Lenny Zumpano, mopping floors and stacking chairs when he wasn't greeting folks... Chris Williamson drove in from Gordo to handle those commercial ovens and just about everything else.

Our very own drummer, Evan Blitzer, preparing for his hotel management career, was serving and assisting everywhere. Betty Lichstein (a vegetarian) never wants to see another chicken nugget!

We represented Temple Emanu-El as volunteers at the Tuscaloosa Community Soup Bowl on Saturday, September 15. This was a first for us all and we were most impressed by the operation, directed by Amy Grinstead. We worked hard enough to be exhausted but were extremely gratified. There are many hungry people in our hometown who are easy to miss as we go about our daily lives.

This was a mitzvah and we'd like our Temple to continue to serve the community in this way. Other religious groups are deeply involved and provide service as well as food. Perhaps more members of our Temple community can help in the future. Next time we volunteer, Chris thinks we should do the cooking, "even if it is not Kosher." We'll keep you informed.

On another note: Our temple donated 113 pounds of food and $176 to the West Alabama Food Bank in honor of our New Year. L'Shana Tova!—Roberta Weisberg, Shari Augins, and Betty Lichstein

Meals on Wheels

We continue to need volunteers for the fall. Please call Becky Caudill at 333-3136 or e-mail her at whom57ever@mail.com

High Holidays (and year-round) food drive

The basket for High Holiday donations to WEST ALABAMA FOOD BANK stays in a corner of the lobby. You can bring in canned goods (or checks) and leave them there any time. There is also a basket for hotel toiletries (and/or checks), to be donated to TURNING POINT. Thanks to Shari Augins and Betty Lichstein for these mitzvot.

Recycling

Thanks to Nettie Blume, Hattie Kaufman, Barbara Hood, and Rebecca Rothman and other friends of the Temple who drop off their newspapers, magazines, and aluminum cans at the Singer home, 903 20th Ave. Other drop-off points: Diane Brown, 963 Germantown Rd 35406, and Marianne Rosenzweig, 1701 Dearing Place, 35401.
