Steven L. Jacobs, Rabbi Joel Whitman, President
April 2012 Nissan-Iyar 5772

From Rabbi Jacobs Be Careful What You Wish For

Dear Friends,
Our celebration of Pesach—our Festival of Freedom—will soon be upon us and I very much forward to sharing our First Night Seder with you on Friday/Erev Shabbat 6 April beginning at 5:30 (Reservations to Anna Singer, please.). This has led me to thinking what I would wish for after wishing for freedom for our Jewish People and for all humankind. (I still find it unbelievable that now, 2012, there are still places in our world where human beings are enslaved by other human beings. An obscenity to be sure and an affront to G-d, to say the very least!) Thus, my preliminary list to which I genuinely, appreciatively, and sincerely invite you to add (We will published other wishes in subsequent issues of our excellent Temple Bulletin):

- 1) I wish for good health for myself, my family, my friends, my community, and all human beings.
- 2) I wish for freedom from want for all humanity--that no one should ever again go to sleep hungry especially children except by their own choosing.
- 3) I wish for a world of peace where war between nation-states and inside nation-states is truly a thing of the past which our descendants will only read about in books and online and view in historical documentaries or fictional films.
- 4) I wish for an American political system which inspires persons of integrity with a commitment to our country and a global vision instead of the ongoing bitter debates which mar far too much of our political non-conversations revealing the ugly side of those who engage in them and diminish us all in the process.
- 5) I wish for our beloved State of Israel a Jewish harmony where all differences in our own religious traditions are respected by all who live there.
- 6) I wish for real medical cures for all the tragic ills which affect and infect us as human beings and which shorten our lives unnecessarily.
- 7) I wish that every day every one of us learns something new and also have an opportunity to laugh joyously.

I could go on but I will stop here. After all, 7 is a good Jewish number! And I invite you to add to my list.

Shalom, Rabbi Steve Jacobs

From the President:

Have a Happy Passover. Please join us at the Temple Emanu-El Community Seder on Friday, April 5th, 2012. We all look forward to seeing you and enjoying your company.

Our Temple, yours and mine, needs more than stakeholders. Yes, everyone who pays dues is a stakeholder but we need those who will share the burdens of running a successful congregation. We need your participation on Temple committees such as: Ritual, Education, Social, Membership, Adult Education, Financial, and Outreach (Caring Days, Meals on Wheels, and others). We need your knowledge and expertise to help share the load. You might even be the person to run for a Temple office.

Our Temple serves people and we need help in providing these services. You are needed to help determine what our Temple is and what it could become! Please consider being more than a stakeholder and become an active participant. We look forward to your active participation. Thank you,

—Joel Whitman, President

Adult Education

Torah Study will meet in the library from 11 am to noon, on these Sundays: Apr 1 & 15, May 6 & 20. Please bring your own coffee and snack.

A new adult education class, ReJewvenation, taught by Rabbi Jacobs, takes place after Torah Study from 12:30 to 1:30. Bring along a brown-bag lunch. Dates for this class are Apr 1 & 15, May 6 & 20. The class will use the text The Jewish Experience by Rabbi Jacobs.

Please stay tuned for other future Adult Education events. Via a charitable donation and an Adult Education contribution the temple will soon own sufficient copies of the new prayerbook for Shabbat services. Members who want to own a personal copy of the new Shabbat prayerbook please contact Diana Schwab at dschwab345@comcast.net.

The Jazz Café, an Adult Education Fundraiser, will be held on March 3, from 6:30 to 9:30. It will feature dinner, drinks, and music by the Voodoo Saints, a 4-person jazz band. For more information, contact Diana Schwab at dschwab345@comcast.net

The Temple Emanu-El Fundraiser and Silent Auction, The Jazz Café, was held at the Temple on Saturday night, March 3, 2012. It netted enough to buy 36 copies of the new siddur, and also make contributions to Temple and Sisterhood. Many thanks to Pam DeWitt and Diana Schwab for their efforts on this fundraiser.

Summer Camp!

There's still time to look into Camp Jacobs, our regional URJ camp in Utica, MS. Check it out at jacobs.urjcamps.org and don't forget—Sisterhood has a camp scholarship to offer children of congregants.

SISTERHOOD

There was no March Sisterhood meeting. Instead, committees planned the Community Seder.

Coming up: SISTERHOOD'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY in 2013: We're making plans for next year, including possibly sending a rep to the national, and for us, a GROUP BAT MITZVAH. Anna will be sending an interest e-mail to start planning our classes.

SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP: Our shop is a glass cabinet in the hallway near the classrooms. Our cookbook, beautiful tallit sets, and other items are on display. We can order for you on request. Ann Powers and Anna Singer are now in charge of the shop. If you need any thing Jewish, from candles to tallisim to ketubot, please contact them at annpowersmusic@gmail.com or annajsinger@hotmail.com

MEN'S CLUB

The men's club will have its first monthly luncheon on Friday, March 23 at 12:15 at Yakamos Turkish restaurant. I will send out an e-mail with directions in mid-March. All Jewish men are welcome.—Steve Schwab, President

JEWISH BOOK GROUP

We're an informal group of addicted book-readers, and try to pick titles that have some relationship to Jewish life or history. Feel free to join us; please bring your own lunch! I hope to see you at the meetings. We have some interesting discussions, especially if there are differences of opinions. E-mail or call me for further information.—Shari Augins (fgpsa@hotmail.com, 759-4105)

NEXT MEETING: Monday, April 30, noon. The book is The Lady in Gold by Ann Marie Connor

Mitzvah

*GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free...
Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.*

Meals on Wheels

We will need volunteers for April. Please call Becky Caudill at 333-3136 or e-mail her at whom57ever@mail.com

High Holidays (and year-round) food drive

The basket for High Holiday donations to WEST ALABAMA FOOD BANK stays in a corner of the lobby. You can bring in canned goods (or checks) and leave them there any time. There is also a basket for hotel toiletries (and/or checks), to be donated to TURNING POINT. Thanks to Shari Augins and Betty Lichstein for these mitzvot.

Recycling: Now at the Temple

We've got recycling bins outside the kitchen doors for ALUMINUM CANS and MAGAZINES and NEWSPAPERS!

Recycling is going well—Waste Management now pays for magazines along with newspapers, so be sure to save BOTH. Thanks to Nettie Blume, Hattie Kaufman, Barbara Hood, and Rebecca Rothman who drop off their newspapers, magazines, and aluminum cans at the Singer home, 903 20th Ave. Other drop-off points: Diane Brown, 963 Germantown Rd 35406, and Marianne Rosenzweig, 1701 Dearing Place, 35401—and now the Temple!
