From Rabbi Jacobs Summer's Coming--Hip, Hip, Hooray!

Dear Friends:

For some of us, the school year is at its end and a much-needed summer break awaits. For others, vacation plans loom large and travel awaits. For others among us, household "To Do" lists await along with gardening and opportunities to put check marks next to those things we have put off during the past year. Yes, June, July, and August await.

Without wanting to add to your summer plans, I do want to add a few suggestions to your goals and lists:

#1: 12 Erev Shabbat Services are in the offing before our next Rosh Ha-Shanah. Why not plan on joining us for a minimum of one each summer month? You'll be glad you did!

#2: There is a Jewish library of literally millions of books on whatever topic interests you, including beach reads (some great Jewish novels are even available for your iPad, Kindle, or Nook!). Why not make this summer the summer of reading Jewishly—for fun, for knowledge, for whatever. If you're stumped drop me an email (sjacobs@bama.ua.edu), tell me what interests you, and I promise to get back to you asap with one or more reading suggestions.

#3: If your travels include weekends away, why not check out the local synagogue and join them for Shabbat worship. If variety is the spice of life, then Jewish variety is the sweet nourishment derived from those spices. If you do, I invite you to send me your impressions of your experiences to be included in our next Temple Bulletin.

Finally, just so you know: That which we hold sacred and precious—our Jewish religious tradition—never takes a holiday; it's always available to us 24/7 365.

Have a wonderful summer. Recharge your batteries and deepen your awareness of your Jewish identity.

Shalom, Rabbi Steve Jacobs

MATZAH BREI BREAKFAST

Sunday April 29th 9:00-10:30 at the Temple

$6.00 a plate—less than the Waysider and tons more kosher!

Sisterhood will serve breakfast—matzah brei made by Iron Chef of Matzah Brei Norman Singer, with optional syrups, turkey sausages, oj, and coffee. Come by when you drop the kids off for Sunday School, or before the Sisterhood meeting, or just to schmooze.

From the President:

I would like to commend Sisterhood for the first Temple seder that was held in our new synagogue building, and for the other service they have given the Temple community over the last year. Be sure to get to the Sisterhood's Matzah Brei breakfast on Sunday the 29th!

We have received our repaired Torah (the larger one) back from Rabbi Honan. Thanks to Rabbi Jacobs for taking the Torah to Huntsville, and to Mike Honan for returning it to Tuscaloosa.

The Annual Congregational Meeting is scheduled for Sunday June 3, at 2 pm. This is an election year, not just for U.S. President, but also for a new group of officers and board members for your congregation. Please be sure to attend and exercise your right to vote!—also to ask questions from the floor.

You may have noticed that our fourth yearzeit plaque (nearest the bimah) is nearly full. The board will discuss the purchase of a new one.

Thank you.—Joel Whitman, President
