From Rabbi Jacobs A New Year; A New Beginning?

Dear Friends:

On page 6 of our Temple Bulletin, you will find our Spring Schedule for Torah Study. We are more than halfway into the Book of Deuteronomy before concluding what has been a truly amazing 10-year project for all those of us involved in reading, thinking, and commenting on a truly fascinating set of biblical texts.

Where do we go next from here upon finishing our study??? That, as Shakespeare would have it, is the question! Do we continue with a look-see at the various Haftarot/prophetic and literary collections??? Do we investigate the texts of the New Testament from a Judaic perspective??? Is there something that we have not considered as appropriate to our Adult Education Program that we have not considered???

Co-Presidents' Message

Now that Hanukkah and New Year's Day are behind us, and (we hope) a football celebration is ahead, it is the traditional time for New Year's resolutions. We hope that this year, your resolutions will include becoming more connected with your community—both your Temple community and the Tuscaloosa community as a whole.

As you will see from other articles in this Bulletin, the Temple offers many opportunities for connections: for worship, for learning, for celebrating simchas, and for socializing. Also, through the Temple, there are opportunities for performing mitzvahs in the Tuscaloosa community. In response to the call of Judaism to "repair the world," we deliver Meals on Wheels to the homebound, we collect food and perform work at the West Alabama Food Bank, we collect toiletries for Turning Point, and we help to sponsor Caring Days.

This year, resolve to get involved with us, in whatever way speaks to you. If you have other ideas for encouraging membership involvement, please let us know. All members of the Board welcome your suggestions, and the Bulletin would welcome your letters to the editor.

Wishing you all a happy, healthy and Jewishly involved 2013!!!!

—Hattie and Anna

Rabbi's message, continued

The Temple

Your Board

The board met on November 19. We discussed membership categories and the investment policy. We heard numerous other committee reports, and were gratified that they reflected good work in all areas. The board has accepted the resignation (as of April 2012) of Rebecca Rothman as Religious School curriculum director. Kevin Besnoy has agreed to succeed her.

If you have items you would like to see discussed by the board, please get in touch with Hattie Kaufman, hek14874@gmail.com and Anna Singer, annajsinger@hotmail.com (please copy us both).

A teeny etiquette lesson

Some of us have been forgetting that our rabbi is only part time with us (and full time at UA!)—this is just a reminder about how much the rabbi actually gives us beyond the minimum.

Actually, our rabbi's only contractual obligation is to do Shabbat and High Holy Days services. Yet he does so much more, and does it cheerfully.

Even if he were fulltime, the usual etiquette for special events (namings, b'nai mitzvot, funerals, etc) involves not only a nice thank you note, but a nice donation to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund. We hope everyone will keep that in mind when using his generously-given extra services to all of us!

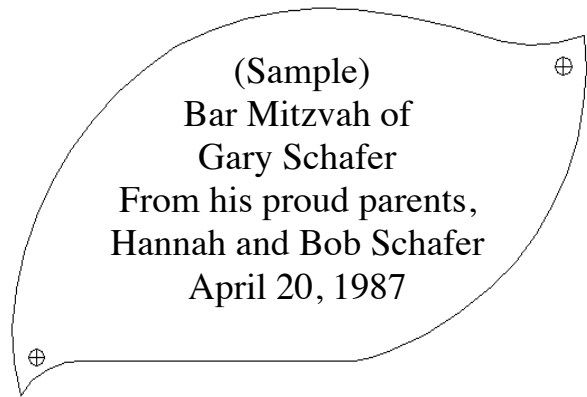

If you'd like suggestions for amounts of such donations, please get in touch with Anna or Hattie.

Leaves of Life

We have begun to add engraved leaves to the Dinoff Tree of Life in our lobby. A sample is shown here at full size.

These may be purchased for simchas—for instance, anniversaries, landmark birthdays, graduations, births, b'nai mitzvot, or other occasions. This is also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community.

An order form is on page 8.

About the Membership Form

All households that have not submitted a membership form are asked to do so now.

A membership form will be asked from everyone, regardless of how long they have been members. Our records have become out of date, and the board agreed that we needed to have good information on file.

Please pick up the form at the Temple, or e-mail Pam DeWitt or Anna Singer for a pdf copy.

Music

The Ritual Committee, has been divided in two with Becky Caudill heading ritual and cemetery and Gale Zumpano handling music.

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone! It's Amy and Pam

The Brisket Bash is right around the corner, on March 10th. It will be our big fundraiser and we will need everyone's help. We need a few people to help sponsor the band, we need items for the Silent Auction, and we need someone to chair the Silent Auction. Anyone willing to assist in a small or large way please get in touch with us. It takes a while to plan an extravaganza like this, but it will be fun and hopefully so successful it will benefit us all.

T-Shirts

are still for sale and we want to thank Chet Goldstein for surprising us by donating them. Sales have been great but we would love to sell all of them. Contact Pam or Amy if you are interested in one.

Coupon Books—Good through December 2013!

Marianne Rosenzweig has chaired our coupon book fundraiser and she has done an outstanding job. It was not in our original plans but has turned out to be a very successful money maker. Contact Marianne if you would like to purchase a coupon book. They are filled with great discounts, and do not expire for a whole twelve months!

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News:

A Morning at the Food Bank

Ten temple ladies helped at the West Alabama Food Bank on December 6th, for a couple of hours. We packed secret meals for hungry children, helped stock the store that then distributes to charities throughout nine West Alabama counties, and stuffed envelopes. Next time we'll take pictures to show what a great job we did. And we had a good time together.

Our assembly-line bag-stuffing operation would have made Henry Ford proud. Within a two-hour period we think we may have stuffed around 500 bags of food that will be distributed to qualified kids on Friday to take home for weekend meals so they won't be hungry. Around 1000 bags of food go to kids every week this way.

Then half of us met at Fifth and Main and schmoozed over lunch, which is always a fun thing to do.

Our work at the Food Bank was really appreciated (they don't seem to have that much staff) and that made us feel really good. And, as Jewish women, we felt we were building a sense of community amongst ourselves and fulfilling an historic tenet of our faith, to do good works or mitzvahs for others.

Here's who came:

The bag-stuffer assembly-line workers: Anna Singer, Hattie Kaufman, Doris Cohen, Ruth Applebaum, Marcy Weinberger, Baila Block (who knows what world problems were discussed and solved!).

The store-shelf stockers: Lori Winfield, Betty Lichstein, Roberta Weisberg (lots of boxes of cereal and cookies...a job loved by organizers like Lori who were admired by followers like Betty and me!).

The envelope stuffers: Melissa Wesley and Baila Block (Baila did two jobs and kept Melissa company!).

Contact Betty Lichstein or me if you want to help next time, Tuesday morning, January 15th. You'll be happy you did!! Roberta Weisberg home: 758-2489, e-mail: weisberg12@comcast.net; Betty Lichstein home: 205 759-8421 cell: 205 391-7841 —Roberta Weisberg, Shari Augins, and Betty Lichstein

JUAF

The Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa is a united appeal fund as defined by the State of Alabama. At present, JUAF has two Jewish-community members: Temple Emanu-El, and Hillel. By law, a united appeal fund must engage in annual fundraising, and distribute funds to its constituent members. JUAF raises funds by selling parking tags and day parking during home games. On December 31, 2012, JUAF made an equal distribution of those revenues to its constituent organizations.

By charter, the JUAF is governed by a board of four officers, two from Temple Emanu-El and two from Hillel's board. The officers at present are: Hattie Kaufman, President; Star Bloom, Vice President; Anna Singer, Treasurer, and Don Siegel, Secretary.—Anna Singer
