From Rabbi Jacobs

Planting Seeds (pun intended!)

Dear Friends:

By the time you read this message, our congregation will have celebrated the first wedding inside our new home. We have already celebrated Barai (Hebrew plural) Mitzvah of both boys and girls, and, sadly, also a funeral/memorial as well. But we have yet to celebrate the birth of a newest member of our congregation, boy or girl. (If anyone reading this qualifies, let me know in confidence and I will put it on my "rabbinical calendar." And, of course, mum's the word!)

These thoughts reminded me that a synagogue according to our Jewish religious tradition exists for three things—to be a Bet Ha-Tefila/a House of Prayer wherein we celebrate our Holiday/Holy Day / Festival/Fast Day Calendar; a Bet Ha-Midrash/a House of Study and Prayer wherein we gather, young and old alike, to educate ourselves on all aspects of our Judaism; and a Bet Ha-Kneset, a House of Gathering and Assembly wherein we gather together (and the key word is "together") to celebrate with one another the joys of being Jewish and being part of a special community of special people.

These three purposes make our home what it is and what we are, individually and collectively, as we have done for these past two thousand years. With G-d's blessing may we continue to do so!

Shalom, shalom—Rabbi Steve Jacobs

The University of Alabama Department of Religious Studies, 212 Manly Hall Box 870264, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0264 (205) 348-0473 E-mail sjacobs@bama.ua.edu

What's an Auf-Ruf?

It's Yiddish for "called up"—a moment on the Shabbat before a wedding when bride- and groom-to-be are called up during the service for a special blessing, and are showered with treats.

Co-Presidents' Message

What a pleasure it is to hang out at the Temple on a Sunday morning and see all the activity going on: religious school, teen Torah group, men's club, adult Torah study, Sisterhood, etc. Of course, this is all in addition to our lively Friday night Shabbat services. We also have groups reading Jewish-themed books and performing acts of tzedaka, by delivering Meals on Wheels, working at the West Alabama Food Bank, helping administer Caring Days, and filling the contribution baskets for several local organizations.

The engagement of our members, and their interest and commitment to our Jewish values, show what a dynamic congregation we are. If you are not yet involved in one or more of these activities, we urge you to join in. Look at the calendar printed in this Bulletin or contact one of us for information.

The more each of you connects with the Temple, the stronger we all become. March is a full month at the Temple. Some upcoming events:

The first wedding in the new building! All are invited on March 3, at 1 pm.

March 9th is the much-awaited Brisket and Blues event—be sure to send your reservation in now (see page 1).

Passover is so early this year—the Community Seder will be held on Monday, March 25. Watch for e-mails and phone calls about the details. So MANY THANKS to Sisterhood for all the work involved.

—Hattie and Anna

Your Board

The board met on November 19. We discussed membership categories and the investment policy. We heard numerous other committee reports, and were gratified that they reflected good work in all areas. The board has accepted the resignation (as of April 2012) of Rebecca Rothman as Religious School curriculum director. Kevin Besnoy has agreed to succeed her.

If you have items you would like to see discussed by the board, please get in touch with Hattie Kaufman, hek14874@gmail.com and Anna Singer, annajsinger@hotmail.com (please copy us both).

A teeny etiquette lesson

Some of us have been forgetting that our rabbi is only part time with us (and full time at UA!)—this is just a reminder about how much the rabbi actually gives us beyond the minimum.

Actually, our rabbi's only contractual obligation is to do Shabbat and High Holy Days services. Yet he does so much more, and does it cheerfully.

Even if he were fulltime, the usual etiquette for special events (namings, b'nai mitzvot, funerals, etc) involves not only a nice thank you note, but a nice donation to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund. We hope everyone will keep that in mind when using his generously-given extra services to all of us!

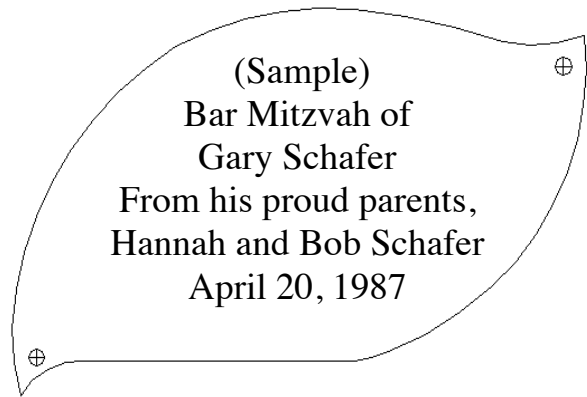

If you'd like suggestions for amounts of such donations, please get in touch with Anna or Hattie.

Leaves of Life

We have begun to add engraved leaves to the Dinoff Tree of Life in our lobby. A sample is shown here at full size.

These may be purchased for simchas—for instance, anniversaries, landmark birthdays, graduations, births, b'nai mitzvot, or other occasions. This is also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community.

An order form is on page 8.

About the Membership Form

All households that have not submitted a membership form are asked to do so now.

A membership form will be asked from everyone, regardless of how long they have been members. Our records have become out of date, and the board agreed that we needed to have good information on file.

Please pick up the form at the Temple, or e-mail Pam DeWitt or Anna Singer for a pdf copy.

Music

The Ritual Committee, has been divided in two with Becky Caudill heading ritual and cemetery and Gale Zumpano handling music.

—Hattie Kaufman and Anna Singer

Treasury Notes

Thanks to all of you for sending in your dues payments on a regular basis. It makes it much easier for the congregation to plan projects and activities.

Please send your checks to Treasurer, Temple Emanu-El, 809 4th Ave, Tusc. 35401. Indicate "dues" or other item, such as "donation" or "yitzkor pledge" on the memo line. Thanks

—Marcy Weinberger

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone! It's Amy and Pam

The second Spaghetti and Bingo Night on February 7th was a lot of fun—again about 50 adults and kids attended. A couple of people won two or more bingo prizes! We will plan these again because so many come and enjoy the chance to get together for a fun evening.

Our Brisket and Blues fundraiser is coming up SOON—on Saturday, March 9th. We are still looking for some more items for the silent auction. Please contact Lori Winfield, our gracious auction organizer, if you have any contributions. As well, we are in need of donations of wine. Please contact Pam if you are able to help.

Our ongoing fundraiser is the sale of coupon books. The coupons are good through December 2013. The great thing about these books is that if you only use the grocery coupons (at Winn Dixie or Publix), you break even: The books cost $20 a piece, and there are four grocery coupons for $5 off. For every book sold, the Sisterhood makes $10!

Our next meeting will be held on March 17th at 10:30am. Beth Borak will be our hostess.

We hope to see you all soon at one of Sisterhood's events!

T-Shirts are still for sale. Sales have been great but we would love to sell all of them. Contact Pam or Amy if you are interested in one.

Coupon Books—Good through December 2013!

Marianne Rosenzweig has chaired our coupon book fundraiser and she has done an outstanding job. It was not in our original plans but has turned out to be a very successful money-maker. Contact Marianne if you would like to purchase a coupon book. They are filled with great discounts, and do not expire for a whole twelve months!

SISTERHOOD MEETING SCHEDULE 2013

March 17, 2013- At Beth Borak's home, 10:30am

April 3, 2013- Sisterhood Board meeting at the Temple, 5:30pm

April 21, 2013- At Wendy Goldstein's home, 10:30am

No Sunday School	31

April

Last Day of Wednesday Hebrew	24
Last Day of Sunday School	28

Teen Torah Group

Teen Torah will meet at noon on every Sunday that Religious School is in session.

WANTED!

We need at least one person from our congregation (preferably a Religious School parent) to attend the 2013 ISJL conference from Sunday, June 23 until Tuesday, June 25 in Jackson, MS.

It is an ISJL requirement that someone from our congregation attend this conference or we cannot use the ISJL curriculum next year.

Please contact Ella (emzitt@gmail.com) if you think you can be the attendee.

—Rebecca Rothman

Adult Education

Torah Study 11 am on these Sundays: Mar 17, Apr 14, Apr 28, May 11, May 19

Greetings! As soon as the temple website is up, the Torah schedule will be available there as well in the bulletin. Let Shari Augins know of anyone interested in joining Torah Study. Shari is the new Adult Education person to consult regarding Adult Education matters. Please lend a hand to members without email addresses and remind them if you see them before Sunday. They are Doris Appleby, Betty Jo Goldstein, and Ruth Applebaum.

Regards, Diana Schwab

"Stepping Stones" has resumed meetings. The program is a Jewish family education program sponsored by Religious School; Shari Augins is the facilitator. The next meeting is on March 10th.

JEWISH BOOK GROUP

We're an informal group of addicted book-readers, and try to pick titles that have some relationship to Jewish life or history. Starting at the January meeting we will be discussing one book and also short stories from Suddenly a Knock on the Door by Etgar Keret).

	Book	Keret Short Stories
Mar 18	The Year of Living Biblically , A.J. Jacobs	Unzipping & The Polite Little Boy
Apr 15	American Dervish , Ayad Akhtar.	Mystique & Creative Writing

Feel free to join us; please bring your own lunch! I hope to see you at the meetings. We have some interesting discussions, especially if there are differences of opinions. E-mail or call me for further information.—Shari Augins (fgpsa@hotmail.com, 759-4105)

MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club will hold an organizational meeting on Sunday morning, Feb 10, at 10 am. Please see the flier sent along with this bulletin.

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News:

Another Morning at the Food Bank

The Food Bank group of volunteers was small in number on February 21st because the milk truck carrying supplies for our project of filling bags for special meals for hungry children hadn't arrived yet. So not all of us were needed. But, instead, those who stayed around anyway packed food boxes for hungry seniors which go out once each month. We're really getting good at this stuff. Assembly line packing all the way and just five of us packed lots of boxes in less than two hours. Join us to help the Food Bank next month, Tuesday, March 19th at 8:15 am. Let Roberta Weisberg know! Roberta Weisberg home: 758-2489, e-mail: weisberg12@comcast.net; Betty Lichstein home: 205 759-8421 cell: 205 391-7841 —Roberta Weisberg, Shari Augins, and Betty Lichstein

Meals on Wheels

We deliver a Meals on Wheels route every Wednesday, and continue to need volunteers for the coming months. Please call Becky Caudill at 333-3136 or e-mail her at whom57ever@mail.com

Year-round drives: Food Bank, Turning Point, Caring Days

There are three baskets for donations in the corner of the lobby. Food items and checks are for WEST ALABAMA FOOD BANK. Hotel toiletries (and/or checks), are donated to TURNING POINT. And CARING DAYS needs the following: paper and tri-fold towels, postage stamps, t.p., Xerox paper, liquid soap, straws, sugar-free cookies, jelly, and drinks, Cheez Whiz, peanut butter, crackers, large latex gloves.

Thanks to Shari Augins, Roberta Weisberg, Helena Bain, and Betty Lichstein for these mitzvot.

Recycling

Thanks to Nettie Blume, Hattie Kaufman, Barbara Hood, and Rebecca Rothman and other friends of the Temple who drop off their newspapers, magazines, and aluminum cans at the Singer home, 903 20th Ave. Other drop-off points: Diane Brown, 963 Germantown Rd 35406, and Marianne Rosenzweig, 1701 Dearing Place, 35401.

JUAF

The Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa is a united appeal fund as defined by the State of Alabama. At present, JUAF has two Jewish-community members: Temple Emanu-El, and Hillel. By law, a united appeal fund must engage in annual fundraising, and distribute funds to its constituent members. JUAF raises funds by selling parking tags and day parking during home games. On December 31, 2012, JUAF made an equal distribution of those revenues to its constituent organizations. In January, the JUAF made a contribution to the Springhill Ave. Temple in Mobile, to help with their tornado repairs.

By charter, the JUAF is governed by a board of four officers, two from Temple Emanu-El and two from Hillel's board. The officers at present are: Hattie Kaufman, President; Star Bloom, Vice President; Anna Singer, Treasurer, and Don Siegel, Secretary.—Anna Singer
