From Rabbi Jacobs Happy New Year!

To be a Jew in these early years of this 21st century is to be an optimist, despite the way the world looks at the moment. Our Kos Kiddush / Kiddush Cup is always—I repeat always!—half-full and never half empty. Our Jewish New Year is that precious opportunity to begin again, personally, collectively, nationally, and internationally. But it is also that same precious opportunity to learn from that past as we forge our present and plan for our future. The Shalom of Peace which continues to elude our world remains right around the corner as the father of modern political Zionism, Theodor Herzl (1860-1904) acknowledged with his most well-known aphorism: "Im tirzu, ayn zo agadah/If you will it, it need not remain a dream".

We have ushered in the New Jewish Year of 5755. Our next chance to reflect on the good—and less good—in the world is Yom Kippur. We will together consider what in our lives has been good, and what has been less good, and we will together ask forgiveness for our shortcomings. And let us vow by our prayers and our actions to make of this New Year the one where the Shalom of Peace becomes reality.

From our house to yours, Louanne and I wish you and yours a year filled with health and happiness, prosperity and joy, and, G-d willing, peace.

Shalom, Rabbi Steve Jacobs

Did you know...

Sukkot is our fall harvest festival and the origin of America's and Canada's Thanksgiving celebrations!

Co-Presidents' Message

We are a lucky congregation, indeed, to have a Treasurer and Secretary who work harder than any job description expects of them, a Second Vice President who also has revived, organized, and energized the Men's Club. And those are just the Temple officers.

Most people don't know how much extra time the Rabbi gives to congregants beyond his contractual duties. Please be sure to thank him for that and his caring for all of us.

The Sisterhood co-Presidents have made Sisterhood into a happy group, organized Sisterhood's large load of annual tasks, and instituted programming that brings the entire congregation together—such as this month's Pasta and Game night. Hope you and your family will all attend!

The board members have all shown their willingness to jump in and help with countless jobs, from taking care of our ritual needs, to running Religious School, to setting up tables, to keeping our finances in great shape.

Religious School parents have stepped up to help in dozens of ways, large and small—staying on Sundays to help with snacks and crafts, lending their own learning to the curriculum, being supportive.

And do you know that nearly every day of the week, there is some Temple-related activity going on—not always inside the Temple, but also out in the community. People get together to support the Food Bank, and Caring Days, and Turning Point, all Temple 'projects.' And all of us are ambassadors for the Jewish community within our larger community. (One of the co-presidents dropped into an Episcopal church 3 times on one Sunday, though one of those visits was, sadly, for a funeral.)

Yes, we can pat ourselves on the back, and know that we are small but mighty. But we also know that no institution can coast, or rest on its laurels (or lulavs). As we head into 5775, let us all thank G-d for our good fortune, and also all the hard work that we ALL put into this congregation.

They are also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community. Order forms are available on the Temple bulletin board.

As we build our Temple website, and encourage everyone to refer to it, we hope to post lots of pictures of our activities and events on-line. No pictures of children will be posted without parental permission.

The pictures would not only publicize what we do, but enable us all to enjoy and remember these events. The postings would be pictures only, with no identifying names. We do, however, recognize that some folks are camera-shy and may not be comfortable having his or her picture posted. Please contact Amy Ahmed, our webmaster, if you would like her not to use pictures that include you. We will try to accommodate your preferences.

Reminder: UA's weapons policy

Although we own our building, it is sitting on University of Alabama land (which we lease). We have many benefits and responsibilities surrounding this relationship. One obligation is to abide by the University's weapons policy, which prohibits carrying weapons anywhere on campus. For a full statement of the policy, please go to: <http://policies.ua.edu/weapons.html>

Missy Goldstein graduated from the University of Florida where she was active in Hillel and majored in Jewish Studies and Family, Youth, and Community Sciences. She has worked in the URJ Olin-Sang-Ruby Institute. Missy enjoys interacting with children and planning craft activities. She will be visiting in August for teacher orientation and again in the Fall and Spring.

Teen Torah Group

Teen Torah has weekly meetings after Religious School, frequently with pizza. We are grateful to Ben Flax for teaching this group and wish him well as he goes on to grad school. A new Teen Torah coordinator is coming in for the 14-15 school year.

—Kevin Besnoy

Adult Education

Torah Study will meet at 11 am on dates to be announced. Let Shari Augins know of anyone interested in joining Torah Study. Please see below for a special note about Torah Study.

"Stepping Stones" has its last meeting on June 1st. Dates for the fall will be announced. We are reading How to Raise Jewish Children, and Raising a Child with Soul. Some of these meetings will be held at Hillel. Please contact Shari Augins at fgpsa@hotmail.com for further information.

JEWISH BOOK GROUP

We're an informal group of addicted book-readers, and try to pick titles that have some relationship to Jewish life or history. Each month, we have been discussing one book and also short stories from Oxford Jewish Stories.

	Book	Oxford Jewish Stories
Thur Oct 16	Suddenly Love , Ahron Applefeld	"The Calf"— Oxford Book of Jewish Stories

Feel free to join us; I hope to see you at the meetings. We have some interesting discussions, especially if there are differences of opinions. E-mail or call me for further information.—Shari Augins (fgpsa@hotmail.com, 759-4105)

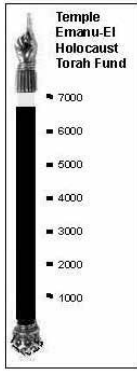

Torah Study starts anew

After more than 10 years, we have finally completed our course of study on the five books of the Torah. (No, we did not attempt to complete it standing on one leg.)

We will now be moving on to study the writings of the Prophets. This is the second division of the sacred writings. In the Hebrew canon the Prophets are divided into (1) the Former Prophets (Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings) and (2) the Latter Prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the Twelve, or Minor, Prophets: Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi). We will be working from The Jewish Study Bible, ed. by Brettler and Michael Fishbane. The book is easily available from Amazon (and use AmazonSmile—see below!). Shari has ordered a copy, so let her know if you would like to take a look at it.

This should be a fascinating continuation of our study, and we hope that many of you will join the discussion. Our first meeting was on Sunday, September 7, at 11:00 in the Temple library. We meet approximately twice a month, and the full schedule is available on the Temple calendar at our website. If you have any questions about this program, please feel free to contact Rabbi Jacobs, Shari Augins, or Hattie Kaufman. It is the interesting mix of students that really enriches the study, and we look forward to starting off this new endeavor with a large study group.

Rescued Torah Acquisition

Our Czech Holocaust torah arrived in Tuscaloosa on September 9.

We have reached $6800 of the $7000 needed for the torah, insurance, a new cover, and other expenses.

Donations of any amount are welcome, and those who donate at least 10-chai ($180) will be recognized in the booklet that will be prepared to explain the Torah's history. Pledges for payment to be spread out are also welcome, if you prefer.

Please send all pledges and donations, payable to the Temple Emanu-El Memorial Torah Scroll Fund, to Marcy Weinberger's attention, at the Temple, 809 4th Ave, Tuscaloosa, AL 35401. This Torah will be an on-going reminder of the perseverance of our people despite the terrible loss we suffered.

Shop Amazon SMILE and give to JUAF!

The next time you go onto Amazon to buy books, music, or kitchen gadgets, start at THIS URL:

<http://smile.amazon.com/ch/26-4722088> It will take you right into Amazon as usual—but .5% of whatever you spend will be donated to the Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa. As you know, half of what JUAF receives in donations or fundraising goes to the Temple, and half goes to Hillel. Even if you don't start at that url, you can select AmazonSmile and designate Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa as your preferred charity. Many thanks to the anonymous congregant who started this help for us.

Note: IT WORKS! JUAF HAS ALREADY GOTTEN A DIRECT DEPOSIT FROM AMAZON SMILE!

If you wish to join the effort to vote for and send an ARZA delegation to this important congress, please go to www.ARZA.org and search WZC.

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News: Help the Food Bank and Mazon year-round

Three cheers for the mitzvah mavens who worked at the food bank in September! Six of us packed 349 secret meals for hungry children in about 1½ hours. A record for us and we're proud. Come join us on Thursday, October 9th at 9 and maybe we can do even more mitzvahs at the food bank. Join us at the Food Bank to help. Call Roberta Weisberg if you need more information. The West Alabama Food Bank also finds checks most helpful but they will be happy to receive food donations as well. There is a basket for these donations in the library. Peanut butter is a top priority. Please check the expiration dates. Canned goods are good at least 5 years past the expiration date, but dry boxes (cereals, cake mixes) should be dated no earlier than 2/2014.
