Co-Presidents' Message

Everyone is looking forward to great eating at Sisterhood's Jewish Food Festival on March 9th (see poster on page 1). We have Rebecca Rothman, Joanna Jacobs, and of course Pam and Amy to thank for this food festival. We hope that it will become an ever-growing annual event!

The plan for an adult Purim party has been cancelled, partly because everyone on the Temple board is also helping out with the Food Festival. But we aren't forgetting Purim! Please join the children at Religious School on Sunday, March 16th for their Purim event. Adults can also wear costumes and make plenty of noise! Just no schnapps that morning...

We're just 6 weeks away from Passover, and so plan to attend the Congregational First-Night Seder on April 14th. More information about that is forthcoming.

In Temple news, we are working on improving the lighting on the front of our building, and UA has added floodlighting to the parking lot. The Temple received a surprise donation from an anonymous donor, ChaiMinded.org. The board will be discussing the best way to use this happy gift. Go to this website to see other congregations who have been blessed this way, as well as our thank you "note."

JUAF

The Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa is a united appeal fund as defined by the State of Alabama. At present, JUAF has two Jewish-community members: Temple Emanu-El, and Hillel. By law, a united appeal fund must engage in annual fundraising, and distribute funds to its constituent members. JUAF raises funds by selling parking tags for home games. On December 1, 2013, JUAF made an equal distribution of those revenues to its constituent organizations.

By charter, the JUAF is governed by a board of four officers, two from Temple Emanu-El and two from Hillel's board. The officers at present are: Hattie Kaufman, President; Star Bloom, Vice President; Anna Singer, Treasurer, and Don Siegel, Secretary.—Anna Singer

Men's Club

1. On February 9th, 12:15 pm, the Men's Club meeting was the first installment of the occasional series: "Lunch & a Movie with the Temple Emanu-El Men's Club" They provided a delicious lunch (Full Moon BBQ beef brisket sandwiches with a vegetarian option, and all the trimmings), popcorn, and then the classic musical film "Fiddler on the Roof." Everyone had a good time.

2. The Men's Club is arranging for the production of Temple Emanu-El Ball Caps for sale to anyone interested. See any Men's Club member to place your order, or to see a cap once we have them in hand (or on head).

3. The Men's Club would like to thank everyone participating in our Space Heater Drive! Our tally is up to 40 heaters donated (and still counting). Please continue to help the needy of our community by donating heaters to Temporary Emergency Services (at 1705 15th Ave; be sure to drop off inside at the main office, and let them know you are donating as part of the Temple Emanu-El Space Heater Drive, or sending a check to: Allen Rosen, Temple Emanuel Men's Club – Treasurer, PO Box 71568, Tuscaloosa, AL 35407 (be sure to note on the check memo "TES space heaters"). And please let a member of the Men's Club know if you have donated heaters so that we can track how many we have helped contribute.

4. Next month, the Men's Club meeting will be on Purim, Sunday March 16, at 10am. During/after our meeting we will assist the Religious School students in their preparing & baking (& eating) Hamantaschen. Please join us!

Best—Murray murraysilverstone@comcast.net

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone! It's Amy and Pam

Our February 16th meeting at the Temple was full of good news—profits on coupon books, the Noa Baum event, and Hanukkah gift sales were excellent. We have BRIAN AHMED to thank for the event profits, since he gave us the wonderful food at cost. There is no better honorary Sisterhood member than Brian!

In addition, we discussed plans for:

Jewish Food Festival on March 9th.

It will be held at the Temple and Bloom Hillel. Rebecca Rothman and Joanna Jacobs are our co-chairs for the event and they need more volunteers. Please help us out by contacting Rebecca at rebeccarothman@gmail.com or Joanna at joannajacobs@hotmail.com.

See poster on page 1. There will be fabulous boxed plate lunches ($10-13) and a tasting area with lots of Jewish items, (tickets are $5 for 6 items) as well as baked goods to take home. BRING YOURSELVES, AND FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS!

2014 Coupon Books

In February, the Sisterhood sold $400 worth of coupon books, which translates into a profit of $200. Doris Blum has joined Pam Dewitt, Baila Block and me as a distributor of books, so you can now call Doris to purchase a book. Plenty will also be on hand for sale at the Jewish Food Festival.

Baila Block and Adena Whitman have recently raved about how good the pizza is at Broadway Pizzeria, and what a good deal their buy one large pizza, get one free coupon is (3 in every book). Their advice—take the extra pizza home and have it cold for breakfast!

Social Action Committee News: Help the Food Bank and Mazon this Winter

Please consider the needy this winter.

Seven mitzvah mavens packed 244 secret meals for hungry children on January 23rd. Anna and Hattie also helped tape broken boxes. We'll go back on February 27, 9 am—join us for a good cause. We're needed! In the meantime, stay warm!

There is a table in the lobby at Temple that has envelopes addressed to Mazon and the West Alabama Food Bank.

You can send your own checks which means that you will receive an individual acknowledgment or if you prefer, we will be glad to mail your check for you.

The West Alabama Food Bank will find checks most helpful but they will be happy to receive food donations as well. There will be a basket for these donations. Peanut butter is a top priority.

Please check the expiration dates. Canned goods are good at least 5 years past the expiration date, but dry boxes (cereals, cake mixes) should be dated no earlier than February 2013.
