From Rabbi Jacobs Summer!

Dear Friends,

All of us are looking forward to summer, whether it means the beach, or family time, or travel, or just being able to catch up on extra reading.

Louanne and I wish all of you a wonderful and restful summer.

Shalom,
Rabbi Steve Jacobs

MAZEL TOV, RABBI JACOBS

This June is the 40th anniversary of Steve Jacobs' semikah, or ordination as rabbi, at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. This reminds us how very lucky our small congregation is to have a rabbi with his breadth and depth of experience, and with the willingness to share his knowledge and time with us.

Thank you, Rabbi Steven Leonard Jacobs!

The Sisterhood Schmooze

Hi Everyone! It's Amy and Pam

As we start to wind down the year we look back and go "Wow!"

It has been a year filled with holidays shared, an evening of history with Gordon Rosen and friends, guest international speaker Noa Baum, our first Jewish Food Festival, afternoons of Mah Jongg, cooking together in the Temple kitchen and other special moments.

It has been a year filled with faith, friendship and fun while reaching out to our fellow congregants and the larger Tuscaloosa community. So much shared with our sisters and friends.

We're not quite finished yet! We are excited that our sisters will meet for a luncheon at the University Club on May 4th. Sisterhood is pleased to treat for lunch before we all start vacationing and enjoying the warmer weather. You should have received an Evite by now and we would appreciate your reply.

We want to congratulate Murray Silverstone and the Men's Club for reorganizing and showing such great leadership. They have done so many wonderful things this year and your sisters are proud of you. Thank you for your help during the year and we have been pleased to assist you when needed. Sisterhood and Men's Club are two arms of the Temple everyone should be proud of!

A special thank you to the Rabbi for always being there for us. Your continued guidance is not taken for granted but sincerely appreciated.

Over the summer the Sisterhood is planning to do a bit of remodeling in the kitchen. If all goes well, the work will be completed when everyone returns for the fall.

So we say to everyone who has assisted us and participated in Sisterhood events: "Thank you!" We take great pride in our efforts to keep the Sisterhood fun and active and could not accomplish our goals without your help.

Special Thoughts

We are keeping two of our Sisters, Baila Block and Gale Zumpano, in our thoughts and prayers. Both are going through periods of serious illness. Please keep them in your prayers.

Sisterhood Meeting Schedule 2013-2014

The Fall schedule will be announced later in the summer.

That's all for now! – Amy and Pam

2014 Coupon Books

Doris Blum has joined Pam Dewitt, Baila Block and me as a distributor of books, so you can now call Doris to purchase a book. Plenty will also be on hand for sale at the Jewish Food Festival.

Baila Block and Adena Whitman have recently raved about how good the pizza is at Broadway Pizzeria, and what a good deal their buy one large pizza, get one free coupon is (3 in every book). Their advice—take the extra pizza home and have it cold for breakfast!

Caring Days

The annual Caring Days Walk to Remember is scheduled for Saturday, August 23, 2014. Many of the caring congregations send teams to participate. The walk is the main source for operating expenses. It is fun, all ages participate. Each congregation usually prepares a basket to be given out as part of the prizes at the walk. One Temple member has provided the basket for many years, perhaps others would like to contribute. Baskets often have a theme, at the creator's discretion Temple Emanu-El is a founding member of Caring Congregations.

There will be a furniture sale in front of the former Bruno's from May 30 to June 2. Unique Teak will be showing and selling their special teak items. Caring Days benefits from the purchases.

Helpers are needed at Caring Days to do many chores from changing light bulbs to weeding the garden.

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News: Help the Food Bank and Mazon year-round

Temple Emanuel has been volunteering about once each month for about 1 1/2 hours to help the West Alabama Food Bank. We've been doing this for over a year (sorry I haven't kept records). We are usually about 5 to 8 women who do the packing of secret meals for hungry children that are sent home with needy school children for weekend nourishment. Sometimes we help by packing senior meals or we sort and stack food for the grocery store which is used by various agencies and churches to fill their pantries. And sometimes there is a need to repair packages that are somewhat torn or crushed. We do what we can to help and believe we are doing good and are appreciated. The West Alabama Food Bank will find checks most helpful but they will be happy to receive food donations as well. There will be a basket for these donations. Peanut butter is a top priority. Please check the expiration dates. Canned goods are good at least 5 years past the expiration date, but dry boxes (cereals, cake mixes) should be dated no earlier than February 2013.

Thanks to Shari Augins, Roberta Weisberg, Helena Bain, and Betty Lichstein for these mitzvot. Please consider the needy throughout the year.
