From Rabbi Jacobs Gearing Up for a Great TE Year!

Dear Friends:

All too soon, the lazy hazy days of summer will soon be over and we will all be returning to school in one fashion or another, either through ourselves directly or our children, grandchildren and other family members indirectly.

Our congregational leadership—our Temple Board (under Hattie's and Anna's outstanding guidance); our Sisterhood (under Pam's and Amy's incredibly creative inspiration); and our Men's Club (under Murray's brilliance at the helm, with a little help from his son Sydney of course!)—is already hard at work planning for a successful year even more than in the past. Collectively, we continue to benefit from their vision, their willingness to take charge and involve all of us in such positive, new, and exciting ventures. I have said to all of them on more than one occasion how fortunate I consider myself as the Rabbi of Temple Emanu-El to work with them and all of you. But I want to challenge you as well the next time you see any or all of them individually or all of them together to say "Toda rabba/Thank you for everything y'all have done, are doing, and will do".

If it takes a village to raise a child, then it certainly takes all our leadership and membership to make our congregation our Jewish home where together we can pray to the G-d of Israel, where we can learn together what it means to be Jewish, and where we can celebrate—yes celebrate!—the privilege and pleasure of coming together and truly enjoy each others' company as Jews and supporters of Jews.

As we now approach 5775, let us join together and pray for a year filled with health and happiness, prosperity and joy, and, please G-d, the shalom of peace which can only come from above and bestowed upon all of us as gift beyond compare.
Shalom, Rabbi Steve Jacobs

Caring Days Walk to Remember

University Mall, Saturday, August 23, 8-12

Temple Emanu-El is a founding member of Caring Congregations, which developed and supports Caring Days—the Alzheimer's day-care center. The center provides activities for Alzheimer's patients, and time off for their families. The annual Walk to Remember not only memorializes loved ones who have died with Alzheimer's but gives groups like ours a chance to show our support. Join us—wear your Temple t-shirt or ball cap—and participate for any portion of the time.

Co-Presidents' Message

It is hard to believe the summer is almost over. (Sorry, but I still think of August as summer, despite years in the South.) We have started to gear up for the fall, and it promises to be busy. As you will see from reading this bulletin, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Torah Study, and Religious School are already planning meetings and activities. Everyone has worked hard to come up with a unified calendar, and I encourage you to go to our website: shalomtuscoaloosa.org to check it out. The on-line calendar will be updated regularly, and that is your best resource for keeping up with all relevant dates. Thanks especially to Marcy for heading up the calendar effort.

One of the most exciting things coming up is our pending acquisition of a rescued Torah from Nazi-occupied Czechoslovakia. Please read the article about this and make a generous donation to the Memorial Scroll Fund to finance this wonderful addition to our Temple.

The High Holidays will be here soon, with Erev Rosh HaShannah Sept. 24, Rosh HaShannah Sept. 25, Kol Nidre Oct. 3, and Yom Kippur Oct. 4. At least we have a little more time to prepare than we did last year, when they started so very early. We know the services will be lovely and meaningful.

Finally, please note the information on page 4 of the bulletin about the University's campus-wide weapon-free policy. Since we are on University property, we are subject to this policy. You can follow the link provided to read the entire statement from the University.

Our first board meeting will be on Monday, August 4th at 5 pm at the Temple. We look forward to another year of progress and growth with a strong officer group and board!

—Hattie and Anna

They are also a wonderful gift for friends or relatives to honor their service in the community. Order forms are available on the Temple bulletin board.

Reminder: UA's weapons policy

Although we own our building, it is sitting on University of Alabama land (which we lease). We have many benefits and responsibilities surrounding this relationship. One obligation is to abide by the University's weapons policy, which prohibits carrying weapons anywhere on campus. For a full statement of the policy, please go to:

- Hosted & funded a lunch & a movie event showing the classic "Fiddler on the Roof" (2/9 after Sunday school met) deliciously catered by Full Moon BBQ. We will plan future lunch & movie events.
- Provided assistance to the Sisterhood's very successful Jewish Food Festival (3/9).
- Helped the religious school children bake (and eat) Hamantaschen during Purim (3/16)
- Provide and served dessert for the Sunday School on its final meeting of the semester (4/27)

Our May meeting took place on Sunday 5/18 at 10am at Edelweiss Bakery

JEWISH BOOK GROUP

We're an informal group of addicted book-readers, and try to pick titles that have some relationship to Jewish life or history. Each month, we have been discussing one book and also short stories from Oxford Jewish Stories.

	Book	Oxford Jewish Stories
Mon, Aug 18	Love and Treasure , Waldman	First story

Feel free to join us; please bring your own lunch! I hope to see you at the meetings. We have some interesting discussions, especially if there are differences of opinions. E-mail or call me for further information.—Shari Augins (fgpsa@hotmail.com, 759-4105)

Rescued Torah Acquisition

Over the last several months, Rabbi Jacobs has been in communication with the Memorial Torah Scroll Foundation, in London, to procure for Temple Emanu-El a Torah scroll rescued from Nazi-occupied Czechoslovakia. The Foundation has accepted our application, and, as soon as a suitable scroll is identified, arrangements will be made to deliver it to us.

We are all very excited about this project, and sincerely hope that you will all help to fund this endeavor. As was explained in the letter sent to our members, we have set a fund-raising goal of $7000, to cover the payment to the Foundation, shipping costs, a new torah cover, and other related expenses. Donations of any amount are welcome, and those who donate at least 10-chai ($180) will be recognized in the booklet that will be prepared to explain the Torah's history.

Pledges for payment to be spread out are also welcome, if you prefer. Please send all pledges and donations, payable to the Memorial Torah Scroll Fund, to Marcy Weinberger's attention, at the Temple, 809 4th Ave, Tuscaloosa, AL 35401. This Torah will be an on-going reminder of the perseverance of our people despite the terrible loss we suffered.

Torah Study starts anew

After more than 10 years, we have finally completed our course of study on the five books of the Torah. (No, we did not attempt to complete it standing on one leg.)

We will now be moving on to study the writings of the Prophets. This is the second division of the sacred writings. In the Hebrew canon the Prophets are divided into (1) the Former Prophets (Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings) and (2) the Latter Prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the Twelve, or Minor, Prophets: Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi). We will be working from The Jewish Study Bible, ed. by Brettler and Michael Fishbane. The book is easily available from Amazon (and use AmazonSmile—see below!). Shari has ordered a copy, so let her know if you would like to take a look at it.

This should be a fascinating continuation of our study, and we hope that many of you will join the discussion. Our first meeting will be Sunday, September 7, at 11:00 in the Temple library. We meet approximately twice a month, and the full schedule is available on the Temple calendar at our website. If you have any questions about this program, please feel free to contact Rabbi Jacobs, Shari Augins, or Hattie Kaufman. It is the interesting mix of students that really enriches the study, and we look forward to starting off this new endeavor with a large study group.

Notes from all over...

Hillel News Hillel's new student board includes: Risa Hayet, Pres; Elie Allen, Sec'y; Joe Bloomston, Treas; Matthew Filderman, Kelsey Kunststadt. Stephanie Arkin, and Kerri Fogel, Vice Presidents. They are planning numerous events this month! See the Hillel calendar at Hillel Calendar For more information, contact Lisa Besnoy at lisa.bamahillel@gmail.com

Caring Days The annual Caring Days Walk to Remember is scheduled for Saturday, August 23, 2014. Many of the caring congregations send teams to participate. The walk is the main source for operating expenses. It is fun, all ages participate. Sisterhood will prepare a basket to be given out as part of the prizes at the walk. Temple Emanu-El is a founding member of Caring Congregations. Also, helpers are needed at Caring Days to do many chores from changing light bulbs to weeding the garden.

Shop Amazon, give to JUAJF! The next time you go onto Amazon to buy books, music, or kitchen gadgets, start at THIS URL: <http://smile.amazon.com/ch/26-4722088> It will take you right into Amazon as usual—but .5% of whatever you spend will be donated to the Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa. As you know, half of what JUAJF receives in donations or fundraising goes to the Temple, and half goes to Hillel. Even if you don't start at that url, you can select AmazonSmile and designate Jewish United Appeal Fund of Tuscaloosa as your preferred charity. Many thanks to the anonymous congregant who started this help for us.

Mitzvah

GEN. 58:6-7: Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to unlock the shackles of injustice...to let the oppressed go free... Surely it is to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring the homeless poor into your house.

Social Action Committee News: Help the Food Bank and Mazon year-round

Temple Emanuel has been volunteering about once each month for about 1 1/2 hours to help the West Alabama Food Bank. We've been doing this for over a year (sorry I haven't kept records). We are usually about 5 to 8 women who do the packing of secret meals for hungry children that are sent home with needy school children for weekend nourishment. Sometimes we help by packing senior meals or we sort and stack food for the grocery store which is used by various agencies and churches to fill their pantries. And sometimes there is a need to repair packages that are somewhat torn or crushed. We do what we can to help and believe we are doing good and are appreciated. The West Alabama Food Bank will find checks most helpful but they will be happy to receive food donations as well. There will be a basket for these donations. Peanut butter is a top priority. Please check the expiration dates. Canned goods are good at least 5 years past the expiration date, but dry boxes (cereals, cake mixes) should be dated no earlier than February 2013.

—Roberta Weisberg home: 758-2489, e-mail: weisberg12@comcast.net; Betty Lichstein home: 205 759-8421 cell: 205 391-7841

Meals on Wheels

We deliver a Meals on Wheels route every Wednesday, and continue to need volunteers for the coming months. Please call Becky Caudill at 333-3136 or e-mail her at whom57ever@mail.com

Year-round drives:

Food Bank, Turning Point, Caring Days

There are three baskets for donations in the corner of the lobby. Food items and checks are for WEST ALABAMA FOOD BANK. Hotel toiletries (and/or checks), are donated to TURNING POINT. And CARING DAYS needs the following: paper and tri-fold towels, postage stamps, t.p., Xerox paper, liquid soap, straws, sugar-free cookies, jelly, drinks, Cheez Whiz, peanut butter, crackers, large latex gloves.

Thanks to Shari Augins, Roberta Weisberg, Helena Bain, and Betty Lichstein for these mitzvot. Please consider the needy throughout the year.

Feeding the hungry

Please see the donation baskets and envelopes for the Food Bank and Mazon in the foyer.

Recycling

Thanks to Nettie Blume, Hattie Kaufman, Becky Caudill, and other friends of the Temple who drop off their newspapers, magazines, and aluminum cans at the Singer home, 903 20th Ave. Other drop-off points: Diane Brown, 963 Germantown Rd 35406, and Marianne Rosenzweig, 1704 Dearing Place, 35401.

A Note from our good friends the Feingolds in Birmingham:

Andy just started a new job and is training in Huntsville for a couple more weeks. I work part time for a company that offers continuing education for preschool teachers. The kids are growing like crazy... Jacob will be 11 in August and Danielle is 8. They are both very active at the ice rink in Pelham. Jacob plays hockey and Danielle figure skates which keeps us very busy during the school year.
